THE DEFEATED CANDIDATE.
You take the way this country's run.
A good man doesn't stand no show.
They ain't pick the meanest one
An' plank him in the foremost row:
I don't seem hardly right, I know.
I've give the thing a heap o' thought,
But dern me if it isn't so!
There's nothin' goes the way it ought.
The men as ought to have the luck
Is them as gets it in the neck.
At every corner they get stuck
The same as I've been stuck, by heck!
We get the two-spots in the deck.
In any game our share's a naught.
Their larks is allus brought to wreck.
Things never goes the way they ought.
You needn't think that I am sore:
I didn't know but what you might.
The neighbors didn't set no store
By what was fall an' square an' white.
I stood for what I knowed was right.
My nomination came unsought.
An' yet they snowed me out o' sight!
There's nothin' goes the way it ought.

Mr. Walter Worthington, brakeman on the C. and O., is sick at his boarding-house in Covington.

Mrs. Ada L. Quarterman of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ben Poyatz of Market street.

The Cincinnati Fall Festival is being liberally patronized by the citizens of Maysville and Mason county, which proves that it pays to advertise.

One of the most modest grandpups in the city is Colonel George Schwartz. He's so happy that he just can't get a word in edgewise for the smiles.

At the session of the Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church, South, which met yesterday at Winchester, the Rev. Felix K. Struve of this city was elected Conference Reporter.

William J. Bryan received a most hearty welcome to Louisville and the South on his arrival there from St. Louis yesterday. He spoke at the Armory last night, and the crowd reached the maximum capacity of 15,000.

Special agents for the following makes of watches: Elgin, DuBois-Hampden, Waltham and Hamilton, in gold, gold-filled and silver cases. We are offering special values on the above goods. Call and let me show you; no trifle.
P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

If Chief Ort should arraign in the Police Court today the large crowd of young boys who behaved in such a boisterous and rowdy manner in front of the Opera-house last evening, and their parents had to pass over to the school fund $6.50 apiece for their fun, they would no doubt think it was an assumption on the Chief's part that did not belong to him. But it does. The conduct on the part of the boys was scandalous in the extreme and should not be tolerated.

An audience of good proportions witnessed the "Punkin Husker" at The Washington last night by the Murray Comedy Company. The play was a rural comedy and a good one. Tonight "A Convict Wife," a story of the Franco-Prussian War, will be presented. This is one of the best plays in the company's repertoire and one that each member is seen at his or her best. The Management has introduced an innovation in the way of giving the patrons ice water between the acts.

CLEARED THE GALLERY

Chief Ort Takes Drastic Measures at Opera-House Last Night

Fair warning!
The Management of the Opera-house is determined to suppress hoodlumism in the Gallery—or elsewhere in the house for that matter. Persuasion and appeals to common decency having failed, drastic measures will henceforth be the order.

Last night the conduct in the Gallery was intolerable—whistling, cat-calls and general disorder disturbing the entire audience—excepting the hoodlums who indulged in the noise.

Chief Ort appeared upon the scene, accompanied by two of his officers, and after questioning every one in the Gallery as to who created the disorder, as one knew, of course.

Thereupon the Chief "cleared the Gallery," marching its two hundred occupants to the street below, where they made more noise and many threats, all of which accomplished nothing.

These "toughs" may just as well understand right now as at any time that their disgraceful acts will no longer be tolerated; and if last night's lesson be not sufficient, the next offense will be rewarded with a term on the rockpile.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Lewis M. McCarthy will entertain at Beechwood Park this afternoon at 1:30 with a euchre.

Mrs. Isaac Woodward has issued cards for a Garden Party at Beechwood Park Saturday afternoon from 1 till 5 o'clock.

The opening social of the season was given Tuesday evening by the Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. Church. It was a very pleasant occasion and its success reflects much credit on the social department of the young people's society.

The regular September issue of the League's Loquacious Literary Ledger was read to the delight of all. This sprightly young candidate for journalistic honors is destined to reach an exalted position in popular favor if its steady improvement continues. The selections by what St Skaggs calls the famous Male Quartette were well received and contributed no little bit to the evening's enjoyment.

After the social part of the program was finished, all were invited to refresh themselves with some delicious watermelons which the Pastor, Rev. G. W. Bunton, had bargained for on a recent trip to the rural precincts of Lewis county.

This social is just a starter, as many more will follow at regular intervals with programs appropriate to the season.

Mrs. Isaac Woodward will entertain at Beechwood Park Saturday.

Taylor at Washington sells Heinz's pickling vinegar at 20 cents a gallon.

Next Saturday will be the day for listing dogs for taxation under the new law.

Mrs. Henry L. Whaley of near Mt. Carmel fell a few days ago and broke one of her arms.

Mrs. John W. Watson will remove from West Second street and occupy a flat in the Hill House.

Mr. Gordon Triplett, one of the polite clerks at Ray's Drugstore, will leave Sunday for Bellevue to make that place his permanent home.

When Circuit Court reconvenes October 1st for the trial of jury cases, it will commence on the case of Jefferson Watson's Administrators v. N. and D. Watson, which has been tried three times, the jury failing to agree at each trial. The suit is based upon a promissory note, and the defense is payment of the original debt.

Flomingsburg is to have a colt and stallion show September 22d.
Mr. J. F. Plummer is preparing to move from this city to Flemingsburg.
Losses by fire in Louisville during the fiscal year which closed August 31st, are estimated at $299,785.94.

PETE BAKER.

A clean comedy production of the brightest description, rich in humor, embellished with several song hits and a well developed plot, at times strongly dramatic in dialogue and situation, called "A Race for Widow," comes to the Washington Theater Monday, September 17th. The company is said to be excellent, which adds to the popularity of the production. Pete Baker, the famous comedian of Chris and Lena fame, is the star.

STOCKINGS FOR BOYS.

The Hercules—made for real boys. Of all things don't tell a boy to be careful of his stockings. Who'd give a snap for a boy who couldn't whoop and holler and tear around generally! Hercules Stockings are made for such boys. Strong durable Maco Cotton heavily ribbed, double soles, heels, toes, knees. 25c pair.

HANDKERCHIEFS FROM THE OLD SOO.

Right from the land of the blackthorne and shamrock—sheer, pretty, pure flax. Initial handkerchiefs for women hand embroidered. Two styles—one with plain letter, the other with wreath encircling initial. 12 1/2c.

For men, big, generous hemstitched handkerchiefs of snowy linen. At 15c each or 6 for 75c they've been "Specials" whose popularity never wanes.

WOMEN'S UMBRELLAS.

High grade Umbrellas in elegant effects. Qualities throughout, like some of the handle trimmings, sterling. Made not only for show, but for good honest service.

Best paragon lock rib frame, steel rod and cover of silko—a fine silk finished twill with narrow tape edge. The handles are really the surprising feature comprising English boxwood silver trimmed, pearl posts, partridge mounts, French horn and numerous other styles, actually too choice for an umbrella that sells for $1 1/2.

COVERT COATS.

Season after season the Covert Coat adds to its universal popularity. The fabric has so many possibilities for a smart tailor, and is made up in so many handsome styles that every woman wants a Covert Coat in addition to any other wraps she may possess. It is the convenient garment for countless occasions. Silk emplacements, fancy braids, buttons, stitching and cloth bands give variety in trimming. Lengths vary to suit different figures and sleeves have the distinctive touches of 1906. Be sure to see these attractive coats. The economy of the prices you will appreciate when you recognize $8 1/2, $12 1/2 values for $5.00, $7 1/2.

AND still "Judge" CANTRILL continues to draw the salary which he doesn't earn. While Mr. HAYS and Governor BECKHAM are exposing "graft," they might take a whack at this old snoozer, who has drawn nearly $10,000 from the State Treasury without having done a single day's work.

THE London General Postoffice recently successfully delivered a letter addressed "Corner House, Two Stone Dogs in Front." What a lucky thing that letter escaped some of the Civil Service mail handlers in the Maysville Postoffice; it would have been dumped in the wrong hopper for sure.

"No session of Congress has, in my judgment, for thirty years accomplished so much that is valuable in legislation for the best interests of all the people as has been enacted during the present session. I believe that this will be the verdict of history," said Speaker CANNON in a speech of thanks at close of session June 30th, 1906.

With work on the brick streets "progressing annually a little every day some," with new construction on the telephone lines, gas and water supplies; with a $60,000 addition to the already big plant of the American Tobacco Company, and with many lesser betterments in many parts of the city, who will say that the old town isn't moving right up to the head of the procession?

THE "filler" is here; its purpose is supposed to be to "fill" the joints between the bricks; but, from a layman's standpoint, only a "half-filler" is being used.

A DISPATCH from Washington says a decided sensation has been caused by the action of the sub-committee of the National Democratic Committee discharging its clerks and stopping the sending out of literature and other work in the interest of Democratic Congressional candidates.

The advocacy by BRYAN of Government ownership of railroads has set the plans of Democrats all awry. They have thrown up their hands and quit. They will have none of the Nebraskan.

For some time seven members of the National Committee, acting as a sub-committee, have maintained offices in Washington adjoining the headquarters of the Democratic Congressional Committee. Ten clerks have been busy sending what was deemed sound Democratic literature throughout the country. Now BRYAN has come forward with his new theories and the Committee is disgusted and has quit work.

ROBERT MILLER, representing the National Committee, has dismissed all of the ten clerks, only keeping a Private Secretary. Members of the Democratic National Committee openly state their disgust at the trend of events and contributions have fallen off greatly.

And then came one of the Democratic leaders with the statement that it isn't so, although he admits the discharge of the ten clerks.

A Highly "Colored" Dissemination

Special Correspondence Public Ledger.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sep. 5th, 1906.

But the speeches! they quite took the cake. We mean that these speeches surpassed anything of the kind we ever heard for intelligence and eloquence. Think of a coal black African, a fine looking fellow in swallow tail coat and white tie, holding an audience spellbound for two hours! This man was formerly located in Liberia, Africa, but now he is Rev. M. C. B. Mason, D.D., Corresponding Secretary Freedman's Aid and Southern Educational Society, M. E. Church, Cincinnati, O. His subject was "Africa in America and Africa Beyond the Seas." Besides, there were nearly a score of other speakers nearly as good, but his was the master piece of the meeting.

The burden of all their talk was how to arouse the ambition of the Negro, educate him and fit him to deal and cope with the white man. Work and worth they declared was the only ways and means to the end. Many of the speakers told jokes on themselves and the other darkies.

Rev. Mason said he had traced his family history back to his grandfather in America and his great-great-grandfather in Africa; but with a laugh, he declared he was afraid to trace his ancestors back any farther. He was referring to the long tailed denizens of the African jungles.

The other speakers plainly informed their hearers that they were too fond of coon hunting, watermelons and circuses. One speaker declared that the Negroes seemed to study and think more about dying and how to raise five or ten cents every week to pay into the coffers of the graveyard hat-passing insurance companies, than they do about getting an education and bettering their social condition. He said "don't think about dying and getting $75 insurance; but think about living and how to be real men and women." Many white people should also put on their thinking cap.

And the audiences—they were all colors of the rainbow, and then some. From the sable-skinned African to the almost lily white and delicate looking females that would pass anywhere for the real goods. But the taint was in the blood and the blacks, yellows, reds, whites and forty-seven other colors in between, mixed and mingled in free and jolly intercourse and enjoyed themselves as only the colored people do. The big gun of the colored race, Booker T. Washington, was scheduled to appear before the convention and deliver an address, but he wired an excuse, a la Grover Cleveland, and failed to show up. Booker is getting above mixing with the common herd of darkies. He now sends his son to Harvard and his daughter to Vassar College. That's going some, nint it? Sunday night the great meeting wound up with a grand rally and a general love feast. Every seat in Convention Hall, 6,000, were occupied, and everybody had to pay 10 cents to get in. They called it a "silver offering."

But there was one Negro that we sometimes think was the only real self-made man. That Negro was

FREDERICK DOUGLASS, that wonderful darkey and copper-colored genius who was repeatedly declared to be "The noblest slave that ever God set free!"

The writer only saw Fred Douglass once and that was in this city in January, 1895, only a month before he died. He dropped dead at his home on Anacostia Heights, called Cedar Hill, a suburb of Washington, on February 20th of that year. He was six feet tall with bronzy face and bushy and venerable looking white hair and beard. He was a handsome and dignified looking man, in truth the most distinguished appearing colored man we ever saw.

Fred Douglass along with Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," were the two leading elements and agencies that freed the Negro.

Fred Douglass was half white and his father was said to have been a distinguished Marylander, and as some say, he was a one time Governor of the state.

His mother was a black Negro slave woman, tall, erect and well proportioned, with regular features and manners of natural dignity and sedateness. Though she worked in the field and toiled from morning till night, she learned to read in some mysterious way, and among a thousand slaves on the Lloyd plantation she was the only one who possessed that accomplishment. Her son, Fred, was born on the plantation in 1817, at a place called Tuckahoe, near Easton, Talbot county, Maryland, on the Eastern shore. Major Edward Lloyd, owner of the plantation, also owned over a thousand slaves, had a splendid old-time mansion and was a regular old-time aristocrat. Fred Douglass hardly remembered his mother's name and he was allowed to be with her but once after he left her breast as an infant until he was seven years old. He was raised by his grandmother, Betty Bailey, colored, and until he ran off, aged 20, he called himself Frederick Augustus Washington Bailey.

SEED TIME!

An important period in farm life. Every precaution should be taken to provide an abundant increase at HARVEST TIME!

Owing to the peculiar seeding device upon the Champion Drill, a patented feature, we are firmly convinced that wheat sowed by this Drill will produce a more abundant yield than any other seeding device.

Our Opinion is Based Upon Experience
Covering a period of 8 years with this Drill.

Surely We Cannot Be Mistaken!

At any rate your duty is to take every possible precaution in seeding. You owe it to yourself to take an hour off and examine this patent Drill. The principle is so plain that any one can readily see into it.

STOPS ANY ITCHING.

Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles. Maysville People Recommend It.

One application of Doan's Ointment stops any itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum—any skin eruption or skin itching. It is the cheapest remedy to use, because so little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Maysville testimony to prove it:

Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., says: "I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville papers. I said that I had received most decided benefit from the use of this remedy, procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. For a long time I had an itching or eczema of the scalp. It broke out in spots, and sometimes the spots would appear on my forehead and temples. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain, and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence. A friend of mine also had eczema and tried everything for it but never found anything to remove the annoyance. On my recommendation she used Doan's Ointment, and was absolutely cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
